

bullfrogfilms®

2018 New Releases

AWAKE, A DREAM FROM STANDING ROCK

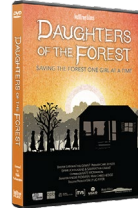

84 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

Moving from summer 2016, when demonstrations and protests over the Dakota Access Pipeline began, to the project's current status, this film is a visual poem in three parts that uncovers complex hidden truths with simplicity.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

DAUGHTERS OF THE FOREST

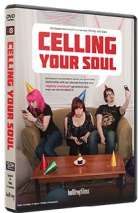

56 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

A group of girls in a remote forest in Paraguay are transformed at an experimental high school where they learn to protect the threatened forest and build a future for themselves.

Purchase $295, Classroom Rental $95

CELLING YOUR SOUL

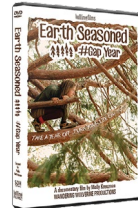

48 minutes • Grades 6-12, College, Adult

A powerful and informative examination of how young people actually feel about connecting in the digital world, and their love/hate relationship with technology.

Purchase $250, Classroom Rental $95

EARTH SEASONED...#GAPYEAR

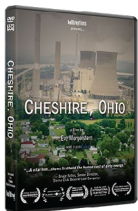

75 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

Diagnosed with ADD, dyslexia, and short-term memory problems, Tori finds her greatest teacher in nature, spending a "gap year" living semi-primatively with four other young women in the Oregon Cascade Mountains.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

CHESHIRE, OHIO

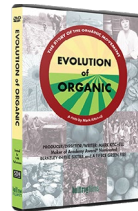

75 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

Follows a community devastated by coal, starting with American Electric Power's buyout and bulldozing of this Ohio River town, after exposing them to years of harmful emissions.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

EVOLUTION OF ORGANIC

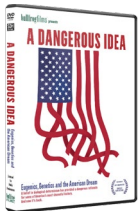

86 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

The story of organic agriculture, told by those in California who built the movement.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

A DANGEROUS IDEA

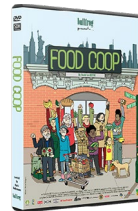

106 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

Examines the history of the US eugenics movement and its recent resurrection, which uses false scientific claims and holds that an all-powerful "gene" determines who is worthy and who is not.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

FOOD COOP

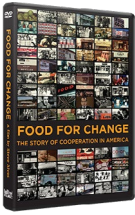

97 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

Looks at the workings of a highly profitable supermarket, Brooklyn's Park Slope Food Coop, which for 44 years has been a shining example of a successful alternative economic system at work.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

FOOD FOR CHANGE

82 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

The deep history of cooperatives in America -- the country's longest-surviving alternative economic system.

Purchase $295, Classroom Rental $95

THE SEARCH FOR GENERAL TSO

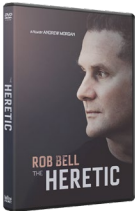

73 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

An international quest to understand the origins of this ubiquitous, spicy red chicken dish doubles as an exploration of the history of the Chinese-American experience.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

THE HERETIC

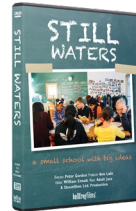

71 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

Follows Rob Bell, the polarizing founder of a Michigan megachurch and an influential writer and speaker, as he spreads a message of love and inclusion and searches for what it means to be human.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

STILL WATERS

79 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

In his tiny, one-room, after-hours free school in Brooklyn, Yale graduate Stephen Haff teaches forty Hispanic children reading, creative writing and Latin.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

ONE BIG HOME

88 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

Shocked by the trophy homes being built on Martha's Vineyard, a local carpenter turns to filmmaking and learns that to change things locally he must become an activist as well.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

SYMBIOTIC EARTH

147 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

Explores the life and ideas of Lynn Margulis, a scientific rebel who challenged entrenched theories of evolution to present a new narrative: life evolves through collaboration.

Purchase $395, Classroom Rental $95

OPEN BETHLEHEM

90 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

Filmmaker Leila Sansour comes home to Bethlehem to find the city being strangled by the wall and ongoing Israeli settlements, and starts a campaign to keep Bethlehem open to the world.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

TRIBAL JUSTICE

87 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

Documents an effective criminal justice reform movement in America: the efforts of tribal courts to return to traditional, community-healing concepts of restorative justice.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

A QUEST FOR MEANING

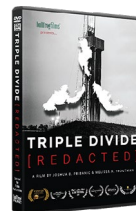

87 minutes • Grades 10-12, College, Adult

Two childhood friends take an impromptu road trip to uncover the causes of our current global crisis and to discover a way to bring about change, meeting with activists, biologists, philosophers and custodians of ancient traditions.

Purchase $350, Classroom Rental $95

TRIPLE DIVIDE [REDACTED]

53 minutes • Grades 7-12, College, Adult

Exposes the mishandling and cover-up of drinking water contamination related to unconventional natural gas extraction - aka fracking - in Pennsylvania.

Purchase $295, Classroom Rental $95